

Yes, I want to help make U-High Live!

The blue donor cards are now coming in by the dozens. Thank you â€¦ thank you â€¦ thank you. The money will be spent for only the expenses of keeping our web site registered yearly, up-to-date and accessible to all of you, AND will allow us to set aside an endowment fund for any unforeseen contingencies in the future. See the list of donors ... read more.

If you have misplaced your blue donor card, please click on the Contact Us tab and we will email you the form.

Please make checks payable to UHIGHLIVES and tell us your favorite U-High or Lab School stories and memories. You are also encouraged to list your gift in memory or honor of another person(s).

include Miss Eleanor Taylor, Mary Polk Jesse, Dr. Lois Knowles, and so so many trips across the street for lunch; especially cream pie at Campus Town Cafe. I began kindergarten with Miss Taylor. After years with dear friends like Elizabeth Harris, Margaret King, Jean Blanchard, Louise Murphy, and Joan Stadler. During the beautiful years there, we had a roof-top theater - Summer Repretory theater. Even my mother and George C. Scott played there. Favorite people at U-High were Julia Diamund, Frank Conley, Bob Clattanoff, Mary McCleary Posner, Burnam MacCloud, Dudley Conley, Ann Sutton, Suzi Dunscombe, Larre Barrett, and many, many more. I adored the playground and swings. If you'd like to ask me any questions, please call. I loved the place."
